

- 1.) What does God think of our difficult situations?

- 2.) How does God promise to help us in our afflictions?

- 3.) Does Romans 8:28 mean that every real Christian will be healthy, wealthy, and wise?

- 4.) How can I explain the suffering in this world in light of Romans 8:28?

- 5.) Can Romans 8:28 still be an encouraging verse for somebody going through difficulties? How?

- 6.) When we maintain an eternal perspective, and try to see the world as God sees it, how are life's trials minimized?

- 7.) If God loves us, why does he allow suffering in a Christian's life?
